featuring Children's Clubs for ages 4-17

Immerse your clients in this beautiful village set amidst the natural wonders and cultural flair of Guadeloupe, where the island's French influence is always apparent. The legacy of one famous Frenchman is on display at the National Cousteau Reserve, while the culinary traditions of the entire nation are served up at a colonial-style beachfront restaurant. With a majestic pool just 10 feet from the sea and watersports available at every turn, the fact that guests are in the Caribbean is never in doubt. So invite the young ones to enjoy programs for kids 4-17 years of age while the adults sip beverages at the beachfront bar. Everyone deserves a vacation, after all.
