

group travel programs

Club Med's Total All-Inclusive™ concept makes planning group travel easier than ever. Agents earn commission on almost every item of the package - including air, accommodations and meals. An added benefit for agents is net pricing for group bookings. This gives you the option to control the mark-up and profit from each group sale.

rent-a-village

Only at Club Med can groups rent an entire village exclusively for themselves. Groups will have access to all traditional Club Med sports, activities and fun with the added benefit of being able to completely customize their event. Whether they want to coordinate beach games, challenge their group to a sailing regatta or simply relax with a beachside barbecue, the choices are endless. Our team of talented Gracious Organizers (G.O.s) will be on hand to ensure that the event is a huge success.

meetings

With over 200 conference rooms in 36 countries and more than 50 years of experience, Club Med is the authority when it comes to taking attentive care of large groups. Club Med's service and creative approach to meetings and seminars make us different, better and unique among our competitors.

invite the family

When booking a meeting at a Club Med village, be sure your clients know that they can book additional guests via add-ons for their families. This could translate into higher commissions for you.

teaming program

Looking for the perfect way to bring your group together? Welcome to the Teaming Program at Club Med. Custom-designed for each group, these innovative activities will help build teamwork, friendship and harmony. From sandcastle building and playing Giant Jenga to competing in "Cu Cu Ball" or our "Beach Olympics", your group will share some amazing experiences and enjoy doing it.

club med catering

Groups don't have time to get hungry. And our Catering Program makes sure they don't, offering morning and afternoon coffee breaks, BBQ lunches for larger groups, standing dinners and working lunches so you don't even have to break. Customized meals can also be arranged to accommodate specific dietary restrictions. Reserved dinner seating is available in our restaurants, and if your group is large enough, you might have the entire place to yourselves. And for a small set up fee, an evening Cocktail Party winds down the day, and in some cases starts a new one.
